

London Polymer Clay Group

is delighted to host a one day workshop with

Lisa Pavelka

Renowned polymer clay artist and author of several books, including "Polymer Clay Extravaganza"

Wednesday 18th February 2009

10:00am – 4:30pm

Cost is £55.00

Lisa lives and works in Las Vegas. This is a great opportunity to take two of her classes in one day. So check your diaries! There are only 15 places.

The price includes Lisa's class kits and light refreshments. Secure your place by contacting Carol Blackburn - 020 7231 9855 or carol@carolblackburn.co.uk . We'll be asking for a £20 deposit (non-refundable) with full payment by 12th January 2009

We are holding the workshop at our new venue in Rotherhithe, overlooking the Thames. Venue and materials lists will be sent on registration.

Captured Memories Resin Pendant: Create a collage with clay and mixed media. Students will have the option of doing a foiled or graduated background in which they compose an image transfer with clay and found object embellishments encapsulated in resin. Included in the class kit are waterslide image transfers, findings, foils, resin and the vintage style watch casing. Students to provide clay and tools. LP

Faux Dichroic Bracelet: We'll work with clay, foils and Magic-glos to get the look of dichroic glass. In this class we'll also discuss various texturing and pattern methods for foils and clay. Included kit will have foils, resin and the bracelet base. LP

See Lisa's work at www.heartinhandstudio.com.

visit the London Polymer Clay Group website, www.lpcg.co.uk